

Betrayed Woman Finds New Home

A Korean woman who came to San Francisco with high hopes of a new life in September after marrying a Korean immigrant only met the bitterness of being maltreated by her husband.

Consulate Typist Girl Killed in Car Collision

SAN FRANCISCO — Park Su-kyung, a 26-year-old typist at the Korean consulate-general here, was killed in the pre-dawn hours of Nov. 21 when the sedan she was riding in was hit by two other cars at the side and the rear.

Dr. Kim Helps Mrs. Park Have Baby, Home, Job

A Korean woman who was in labor on the street was assigned to hospital in time by a Korean doctor and gave birth to a healthy boy.

Panel Meet Talks Real Estate Policy

A panel discussion was held at the Olympic Real Estate School on Nov. 21 on the functions of real estate agents and problems involving land transactions among Korean residents.

Korean Dresses Shown in LA

A variety of Korean dresses were shown to Koreans at the Sanhochang Night Club on the night of Nov. 12.

Senior Citizens Association Purchases Bus

The Korean Senior Citizens Association realized its long-cherished dream on Nov. 19 when it purchased a 55-person capacity bus to be used for sightseeing tours and commuting of the association members.

A private security guard watches customers in the Olympic Market on Nov. 23. Four security guards were employed jointly by 17 Korean businesses in the Los Angeles area to protect customers and businesses as shoppers increase with Christmas nearing.

Priority Visa Quota For Immigrants Open

The immigrant visa quota for Koreans in the first six categories of priority opens this month.

1st Go Championship Held in LA Area

Im Mun-bin won the first go championship in the Los Angeles area held on Nov. 13-14.

Korean Vets Ass'n To Send X-mas Funds

The Western district Korean Veterans' Association in the United States headed by Lee Sok-bong has decided to send Christmas funds and gifts to the military servicemen in the fatherland as a token of their gratitude for the front line troops who face the north Korean Communists.

On Olympic Market

Four Security Guards Posted at Korean Firms

Private security guards have been posted at Korean business firms on Olympic Boulevard to protect the businesses and customers from theft and violence.

Parents Blamed For Juvenile Crimes: Seminar

A seminar on juvenile problems recently held at the Wilshire YMCA concluded that the ever-increasing juvenile delinquency should be attributed to negligence on the part of their parents at home.

Korean Ass'n Holds Party For New Chief

A party welcoming the election of the chairman and vice chairman of the Korean Association of Southern California was held at 1 p.m. of Nov. 14, attended by more than 400 Korean immigrants.

Cocktail Banquet Observed On Board Practise Vessel

A cocktail party was held on board the "Hanbada" (Great Sea), a practise ship of the Korea Maritime College, at the Port of L.A. (Pier 143 Wilmington) on the evening of Nov. 19.

Concert Performed By LA Ensemble

The first full-dress chamber music concert was presented on Nov. 21 in the Hancock Auditorium of the University of Southern California by the Los Angeles Korean Ensemble.

Captain Hoh II, center, chats with leaders of the Korean community in LA during a party he gave on the Hanbada, a practise ship of the Korea Maritime College, at the Port of LA on Nov. 19.

생활에 필요한 것을 안내하는 한국일보 광고란

Advertisement for Samil Trade Co. featuring '신상품' (New Products) and '전격 판매 개시!' (Start Sales Immediately!). It lists services like wallpaper, painting, and cleaning.

Advertisement for Koreana Gifts, located at 2925 W. Olympic Blvd. L.A. It features a '신물!' (New Goods!) banner and lists gift and decorative items from Korea.